MORE EARLY HISTORY

Brought Out By the Recent Meeting of the D. A. R.

The report in the Evening Banner of August 18, of the meeting of the Bennington Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Wednesday, August 16th, contained several small errors.

The house which is now the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Henry at Riverside, was built by Elnathan Hubbell in 1759. He came with his family from Old Stratford, Conn., to Bennington in 1763. His name is found on a petition to the King in 1766. He was one of the ten men who volunteered to rescue Remember Baker who was captured by Munro and his party in the interests of the New York land claimants. He was a member of Captain Elijah Dewey's company at the battle of Bennington. His son, Aaron, was a member of Captain Samuel Robinson's company.

Miss Katherine J. Hubbell is not the oldest member of the Chapter. Precedence must be given to "elect ladies" who have given valuable assistance by executive ability and by the example and influence of their faithful, honored lives.

Italy's Lignite Deposits.

Italy has 30 known deposits of lignite, estimated to contain 281,000,000 tons of fuel available for industrial requirements.

Old Structures in Bavaria.

There are houses still standing in Nuremberg, Bavaria, that were built in 1080.

Invitations are out for the wedding of David Bosley of North Adams and Miss Pauline Barber of this town Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, September 2.

The electrical storm of last Friday night struck a large elm tree near the residence of Hildard G. Pratt. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt were sitting on their piazza and were badly shocked.

"What are you doing with that lump of coal?"
"I am taking it to my jeweler's to have it made over into an engaging ring."

Sweet Perfection.
"I have a perfect wife," said Lee;
"Her cooking's not a crime,
And when she makes a date with me
She's always there on time."

The Epicure.
"Would you mind turning off that electric fan, waiter?"
"Yes, sir. Too much draft, sir?"
"It isn't that, but I don't want the aroma of this camerbert I'm eating to be blown away."

At Last.
"George, dear, I've something I want to talk to you about."
"I'm glad of that, darling. As a rule you want to talk to me about something you haven't got."—Wind-sor Magazine.

"Would you marry a man in order to reform him?"
"No," replied Miss Cayenne. "If I were to marry I'd want to be the head of a household and not of a reform school."

The Dodge roadster owned by John C. Harrington was completely demolished Saturday last. He had left the car by the roadside with the engine running and crossed the Rutland railroad tracks to the office of the Manchester Lumber Co. The jar of a switching engine started the car which ran onto the railroad tracks and was struck by the engine. Mr. Harrington now has purchased a new Buick roadster of the Marshall garage, Bennington.

Louis King of East Arlington is at the home of Octave Bellisle in East Manchester suffering from injuries which he received Saturday evening when he was run over by a car operated by Carl A. Mattison. King has bodily injuries which are not considered serious. The accident occurred at a bad corner at the top of Center Hill in Manchester Center. The street lights were out on account of the severe electrical storm and Mattison did not see King who was standing in the middle of the road. He was driving slowly but was unable to stop before he had run into the man and knocked him down. The exact extent of King's injuries has not yet been determined.

Earl Cherbonneau of Manchester Center was injured late Friday night when his motorcycle was struck by a Cadillac coupe, owned and operated by H. C. Earle, of Detroit, Mich. Cherbonneau's leg was broken, the bone being badly crushed and split. Earl H. Ellison, who was riding in the side car was thrown about 20 feet landing on his head and shoulders but was not hurt. The accident occurred at Dead man's curve about a mile from Gasset's. The road is narrow at this point where it crosses the railroad tracks and the motorcycle was wedged against the bank by the auto. Mr. Cherbonneau was taken to the Springfield hospital in Mr. Earle's machine. Mr. Earle is president of the Board of Trade of Detroit, Mich. He is a native of Mount Holly and is spending his vacation at Echo Lake, Tyson.

There is a Difference!

THE still-man at the refinery knows that there is a difference in various gasolines. So does the automotive engineer and the expert garage mechanic.

These are some of the "best results" that Socony's "uniform quality" insures: unvarying dependability, instant ignition, a quick start and pick-up, maximum power and high mileage per gallon. No gasoline can give you more.
